

NOTICE
Intention to Designate a Property / Ontario Heritage Act

The Council of the City of Markham intends to designate the following property for reasons of cultural heritage value or interest pursuant to the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter O.18, Part IV:

Victoria Square United Church Manse
10724 Victoria Square Blvd
Markham, ON

The Victoria Square United Church Manse has design and physical value as a representative example of a brick village dwelling in the form of an American Foursquare with Edwardian Classical features. The Victoria Square United Church has historical value and associative value as it is representative of Markham's early religious and cultural diversity as it served as the residence of the ministers of the Victoria Square United Church and their families since first constructed in 1936. Further, the property has contextual value as one of a grouping of late nineteenth and early twentieth century buildings that are important in defining, maintaining and supporting the character and extent of the historic hamlet of Victoria Square. The location of the Victoria Square United Church Manse next to the Victoria Square United Church clearly expresses the relationship between the church and the residence of its clergy members.
